

under the supervision of an adult, occurred? I thought I heard Senator Schellpeper say something about that. Maybe I need to ask him.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Oh, you might. I'm not familiar with that. I mean, he may have said something like that, but I guess I didn't respond or I didn't hear that. I don't think it's applicable here. I mean, what we're talking about is, I mean, I think that would be covered by other areas of the law.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If this...if this were not done, what would be the effect of...

SENATOR LINDSAY: The net effect would be 28-1204, which is the...that area of statute that allows for those limited exceptions on use of firearms by minors, would likely not have any effect. It would probably be impliedly repealed by what is contained in 988.

Now, I didn't do this by trickery. I didn't ace this by. I even talked about striking all of the gun provisions from 988. So now that that which I desire has been achieved, you want to call it back and change it because some on the floor didn't know that that was being done. How many of you can stand on this floor and say that I did not strongly and repeatedly say over and over I want to take as many guns out of the hands of these young people as I can? I don't see the need for them being trained how to use these pistols because they're not allowed under the law to possess them or use them. I even engaged in discussion with various senators who hunt, to show that hunting is not done with these pistols. So now here we are. Here is the Legislature again, but in this instance I didn't sucker anybody, I didn't snooker anybody, and you look at how long that debate took by getting the
